

rebuild our nation's middle class through enactment of the employee free choice act (EFCA)

Our nation's economic recovery and long-term economic development must include a comprehensive program to rebuild our nation's middle class.

This is why CAUSE has joined President Obama, organized labor and such environmental organizations as the Sierra Club is supporting the enactment of the Employee Free Choice Act as part of an overall national agenda to rebuilding our nation's middle class.

Take action today in support of the Employee Free Choice Act.